My street is a memorial to Joseph E. Libbey who built one of the first houses in Chippewille, and was County Auditor two generations ago—a position since filled at various times by his son and his grandson.

My East Street, one block east of main, and parallel to Main will be called Center street as it is so graphically at the center of the town and because it will be the center of civic activity when the new court house is built.

Max Patzwaldt, one of the directors of the Fair Association, in charge of the fruit booth is seen with some of the largest cabbage ever grown. Blue-ribbon winner was grown in Clinton, Wash.

Dedication

It would seem by these precedents, that the Committee of Judges should be authorized, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of Washington Territory; and having its principal place of business in the City of Seattle, King County, Washington Territory; also fully authorized to give and dedicate to the use of the public harbor, the aforesaid public wharves.

On review of the Committee of Judges should be authorized, to incorporate the same and to be authorized by its President and authorized by its President on the same day of July 1889.

The Committee of Judges of the Territory of Washington, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the report of the Committee of Judges of the Territory of Washington, as the same appears in the minutes of the said Committee of Judges, held at the City of Seattle, King County, Washington Territory, on the 10th day of July, 1889.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NO. 76

Relating to the names of streets.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Council of the Town of Coupeville that the names of streets as they appear in the several plats, as recorded in the office of the Auditor of Island County, Washington, which plats or parts of plats, together with unplatted areas, comprise the site of the present Town of Coupeville, shall be and are the names of the respective streets in the Town of Coupeville; except for platted streets or parts of streets which have been vacated, and except for new names and for changes of names hereinafter described, as follows:

(a) The unplatted street which extends southeasterly from the junction of Coveland and Main Streets to First Street is hereby confirmed as an established street and is named Coveland Street.

(b) The unplatted street (lying partially without the town limits but wholly within right of way owned by the Town) which extends northeasterly from the eastern end of Race Street (as platted) to the junction of Colburn and Coveland Streets is hereby confirmed as an established street and is named Race Street.

(c) The unplatted extension of Leach Street northerly and northeasterly from Earnest Street is hereby confirmed as an established street and is named Leach Street.

(d) The street, commonly known as Front Street, which is designated in Alexander's Plat of Glenwood as County Road, extending westerly from Main Street to Broadway, is hereby named Front Street.

(e) The following named or described streets, which extend easterly from First Street in Cranney's Addition to Coupeville to a junction with Leach Street, are hereafter parts of one street, named First Street, and former different names are discontinued, to-wit: the unplatted street connecting First Street in the said Cranney's Addition with Whitcomb Street;

all that part of Whitecomb Street which is south of the north boundary of Farnsworth Street in the Academy addition to the town of Coupeville; and all of Farnsworth Street.

(f) The names of certain streets in certain described recorded plats are hereby changed, and their new names are hereby declared to be the official and correct names of such streets in the incorporated Town of Coupeville, to-wit:

(In Alexander's Plat of Glenwood and in Keister's Alteration Plat of Alexander's Glenwood.)

1st Street is changed to Holbrook Street; 2nd Street (including its unplatted extension west of Grace Street) is changed to Calhoun Street; 3rd Street is changed to Libbey Street.

(In the Plat of the Town of Coupeville as platted by Thomas Coupe)

First East Street is changed to Center Street; Second East Street is changed to Haller Street; Third East Street is changed to Kinney Street; Fourth East Street is changed to Clapp Street; Fifth East Street is changed to Gould Street.

(In the Plat of Hull's Addition to Coupeville.)

North Street is changed to Lovejoy Street; South Street is changed to Cranney Street; Middle Street is changed to Hull Street.

Sec. 2. This ordinance shall be effective on and after the date of its publication according to law, provided, that the names of streets as newly designated herein shall not be deemed to change duly recorded plats, for the legal description of real property in such plats; and provided further, that the word "street" as used herein shall be liberally construed, the intent being that any lack of a complete and accurate description in this ordinance of any street shall not invalidate the effect of any part of this ordinance.

Passed by the Council and Approved by the Mayor this 9th day of September, 1947.

E. E. CALHOUN, Mayor.

Attest: Arthur L. Kineth.
